

Fiber to the Home

Bandwidth over fiber for your community

Communities across America are discovering that their future economic development and quality of life is becoming evermore dependent on the speed of the networks that their communities can access.

Franklin PUD Broadband is building a FTTH network in your community as part of a Washington State Broadband Grant.

Quick Facts for Fiber to the Home

- Home values may increase 3%-5% based on various market studies***
- No cost for drop install to the home during construction
- You can opt out of having a drop installed
- Multiple Retail Service Providers available
- Competitive pricing packages and options to meet customer needs
- No bandwidth caps
- Internet speeds up to 1Gbps

For more information contact Franklin PUD's Broadband department:
<https://www.franklinpud.com/broadband>

FTTH@franklinpud.com